WEDONIA.

Thomas Waller of Carlisle is here.
Dr. A. C. Cook of Millersburg is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Frank Waller of Bradford, Mo., is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Rosa Allen and son John of Moorefield, visited relatives here the past week.

William T. Berry of North Fork will open his school here Monday, September 5th.

Miss Mabelle Hord who has been the guest of Miss Marie Hord has returned to her home in Mexico, Mo.

John Griffy, an aged man, living on Mrs. Heddleston's place, dropped dead Thursday afternoon. Heart disease was the trouble.

SARDIS.

J. B. Grigsby has gone to Kansas City, Mo.

Maack Calvert is improving his dwelling house.

Our free school is to begin next Monday morning.

H. M. Piles and family have gone on a visit to Utah.

Andrew Wells has a new twelve-pound boy at his house.

C. H. Howard has bought furniture and gone to housekeeping.

Mr. Kirk and family of Catlettsburg are visiting his father-in-law, J. B. Robb.

Isaac Manley, a very old man, was buried at Shannon Wednesday by the Masons.

Misses Cora and Daisy Wheeler of Washington have been visiting Miss Nanie Campbell.

MORANBURG.

Stock water is mighty scarce up at the burg.

Plenty of never-failing water at the bridge pond.

Our Prayer meeting is well attended every Wednesday night.

George Low and his young wife passed through here Thursday evening.

A little more will and not quite so much wind is what's needed now.

Elder T. P. Degman preaches here to-night, to-morrow and to-morrow night.

Mrs. Cornelia Moran is improving under the skillful treatment of Dr. Reed of Mayfield.

The colored Baptists will put a new roof on their church and make other needed repairs.

Postmaster W. L. Moran has returned from Cincinnati. He purchased a flock of sheep while in the city.

Master Henry Hoffman had a little experience Thursday in the way of riding a colt. He won't get on behind another boy and rattle a tin bucket.

Joseph Thompson of Missouri is visiting friends and relatives in this community. He is 83 years old. He attended church here last Sunday.

We would like to take in the National Encampment at Washington, but it is a little too far to walk there and back, so guess we'll cut tobacco and make a little cider while the boys are gone.

Bachelor John Higgins has made more preserves than any of 'em—peach, quince and damsons. John's got honey too, and still he is not satisfied; he wants another honey. What do you say, girls?

We said in THE LEDGER that Uncle Tom Malott had cleaned up the graveyard at Old Stone Church. Now let each one give a piece of money to pay him for his services. This is one of the oldest burying-grounds in this part of the country. It is now filled up, being room for scarcely any more graves. We call the attention of all interested to the dilapidated condition of the fence, which is not sufficient to turn stock. Many of as good people as ever lived in this section are resting around the old house which was built in the year of 1815. If everyone that has friends buried there would lend a helping hand a new fence would be built in the near future. Let some one take the matter in hand at once. Again we call the attention of the church officials to the fastenings on the doors of the house. They stand open day after day, inviting traps and every-body else to come in.

SPRINGDALE.

Frank Redman and his bride are visiting at C. M. Redman's.

Miss Sanders and Miss Neal of Vanceburg visited friends here a few days.

Mrs. Julia Webster has returned after a pleasant visit to her daughters, Mrs. Hook and Mrs. Redman.

A goodly number of our citizens will attend the old folks' reunion at the camp ground on Saturday.

A new girl baby at the house of James Sweet.

C. C. Degman shipped a fine lot of apples to Cincinnati the first of the week.

Miss Maggie and Bettie Bean will leave for Lebanon, O., on Monday next, where they will attend school the ensuing year.

James Goff of Wabash, Ind., came up from the reunion with comrade, C. C. Degman, and spent several days at Maplewood.

Mrs. J. Trumbo and daughters, Misses Sue and Belle, attended a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Sam Nash on Wednesday.

AMONG the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by Power & Reynolds.
